St. Johns Day Outing

of the Grand Commandery at Gloucester

Monday, June 24, 1929

While we will not participate as a Commandery, for those who wish to attend as individuals we give an outline of the arrangements made by the Grand Commandery.

Train will leave Boston at about 8:50 A. M. daylight saving time, arriving at Gloucester about 10:00. Lines will be formed at 10:30 reaching Fort Stage Park about 11:15.

Dress Parade will take place on the field participated in by the Grand Commandery officers, followed by lunch.

During the afternoon there will be continuous band concerts, motor boat races, and at 4:00 an exhibition by Battery A, 102nd Field Artillery M. N. G.

At 5:00 Seiler will serve a shore dinner.

The price of all we understand to be $10.00 each person from Boston and return.

June Outing

Lack of support has compelled your Officers to call the proposed outing to Forest Hills Hotel in the White Mountains as impossible and all arrangements have been cancelled.

Your Officers regret that this was not supported, as a great deal of time was spent in the preliminaries, and we feel that the Sir Knights have passed up a trip that would have been long remembered, and one that could not be made individually for double the price that we had arranged.

Perhaps if we had arranged a party for Sir Knights only and left our families out of the arrangements we might have put it over.

Who can tell?
